

President and Chief Executive Officer Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council (ICCRC)

Reports to: Board of Directors

Location: Burlington, Ontario

Language requirement: Bilingual preferred

ICCRC is the national regulatory body designated by the government of Canada to safeguard consumers of Canadian immigration and citizenship services provided by Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultants (RCICs) and Regulated International Student Immigration Advisors (RISIAs). Federal law requires that anyone who provides Canadian immigration or citizenship advice for a fee or other consideration must be a member in good standing of a law society in Canada, the Chambre des notaires du Québec, or ICCRC.

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the President & CEO oversees the operations, administration, organization, and efficiency of the Council and leads the execution of its strategic direction. He or she will manage the Council's departments and staff through strong leadership, expert communication and thorough people skills. The President & CEO is the face of the organization to the public, federal and provincial governments, the professionals it regulates, and other critical stakeholders.

As the ideal candidate, you are a respected leader whose background and experience will be diverse and may reflect an understanding of immigration consulting practices, a strong working knowledge of English and French, and significantly advanced management practices. You should also possess extensive experience working in progressively responsible roles in a regulatory environment. Finally, you will demonstrate an understanding and track-record of not-for-profit leadership and regulatory governance and compliance, and will be able to set priorities to influence and negotiate solutions.

If you are interested in leading one of Canada's national regulatory bodies, please submit your application and related materials to Jona Morton at jmorton@boyden.com and state the title of the position in the subject line of your e-mail. Deadline is February 17, 2017.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those under consideration for the role will be contacted.
